

Project Manager

Customer/Competence Centre

The CUBE has its headquarters in Anderlecht - Brussels Region, with further a regional office in Luxembourg with approx. 98 employees and a turnover of 18m €

We are currently looking for a "project manager" to manage medium and large size projects of which Belgian Railways, one of CUBE's major customers.

Job description:

- To manage medium and big size projects from customer order, implementation, acceptance and invoicing.
- To deal with public institutions and international organisations on Belgian territory.
- To help the sales force in the precalculation and solution design of the offers.
- Responsible for that the final margin 'at completion' of the project is in line with the budgetted project margin.
- To promote security solutions with a high added value at key customers (customers on hold & potential customers) with solutions in electronic products and physical products.

Experience requirements:

- First experience in the security sphere
- A1 electro mechanics – at least 2 years working experience
- A2 – at least 5 years working experience (hardware)
- Similar working experience as project manager – at least 5 years

Knowledge / Education requirements:

- Strong experience in "Office Automation" tools – especially Excel
- Knowledge of IT- and networking technology
- Ability to in-depth analysis
- Fluent French/Dutch (oral and writing)
- knowledge of business English
- Previous experience in working with ERP or SAP
- Not required but advised : owner of a Tობback license
-

Personality requirements:

- Presence and ability to build relationships with customers, subcontractors, field engineers and others parties
- Energetic, positive, dynamic
- To be able to lead a team
- To be pro-active and anticipate customers'needs and react quickly to their expectations/wishes

- To work closely and in an efficient way with all staff members to get customers' satisfaction
- Self motivated with the ability to work within tight deadlines
- Strong personnel interest in technology/security and automation.

Workplace:

Belgium

Reporting to:

Report to Manager Project Management

Application:

Please submit your application by e-mail to Murielle.Kubiak@Gunnebo.com. Your application will be treated confidentially. It should contain:

- 1) Résumé / Curriculum Vitae
- 2) An application letter which should contain:
 - A reflection on your background / track record
 - Comments on your personality (in relation to what is required for this role)
 - What makes you interested in this role